DAILY CHALLENGES

Daily Challenges

These are the tasks/challenges that will be uploaded on CSI website open only for 24 hours.

Example:

A new language is just a 'hello world' away....

- There is no better way to start your journey with an enthusiastic greet to everyone and what a great idea to step things up to the next level by greeting all in a new language.
- So step out of your comfort zone, buckle up and say 'Hello, World!' in any programming language that you've never used before. Not sure on how to start?
- Just reach out for the online tutorials!

Rules

CSI members have complete authority to append, delete or add any rules before or during the event based on the circumstances.

Individual Event

- The content should be related to the task mentioned.
- Plagiarism of any sort is not allowed
- Challenges should be attempted individually.
- The more challenges/tasks you submit, the more points you gain and hence higher chances of finishing at the top of the Leaderboard.
- Tasks completion can be submitted on google forms link that will be provided on the website and shared during the weeks' events.
- Late submissions will not be encouraged
